Clarification of News Report

This refers to the news article entitled "Tanduay eyes Central Azucarera Don Pedro" posted in philSTAR.com on March 18, 2019. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines — Taipan Lucio Tan's Tanduay Distillers Inc. (TDI) is interested in acquiring Central Azucarera Don Pedro Inc. (CADPI), its top official said.

'We are looking at it because it will complement our business,' TDI president and CEO Lucio 'Bong' Tan Jr., the son and namesake of the taipan, told The STAR in an interview on Friday.

....

Tan said they are conducting their due diligence.

'If the price is okay, yes we are interested. We are doing our due diligence,' Tan said.

He said acquiring CADPI would provide Tanduay another source of molasses -- which are necessary raw materials in manufacturing alcohol. He said this can reduce the company's business cost.

'We have our distiller so it will be complementary. We can use the molasses for our distiller,' Tan said.

...."

Please be kindly advised that since the rejection by the Philippine Competition Commission of the sale of its sugar milling and refining operations in Brgy Lumbangan, Nasugbu, Batangas ("Nasugbu Assets") to Universal Robina Corporation, Roxas Holdings, Inc. (RHI) received indications of interest from potential buyers but has not yet been presented with any formal offer for acquisition of the Nasugbu Assets. Should there be any agreement subsequently entered for the sale of the Nasugbu Assets, the necessary disclosures will be timely made in compliance with the disclosure rules of the Exchange.

For your guidance, please. Thank you.
